

Education Satisfaction March 2010
FL Poison Information Center – Tampa

Evaluations n=41 paramedic students

	Excellent	Good	Average	Poor
Content presented in a logical and organized manner	100%
Speaker demonstrated adequate knowledge of topic	100%
Topic was relevant to my interests/needs	100%
Length of presentation was	98%	2%

Evaluations n = 24 childcare providers

	Excellent	Good	Average	Poor
Content presented in a logical and organized manner	95%	5%
Speaker demonstrated adequate knowledge of topic	96%	4%
Topic was relevant to my interests/needs	95%	5%
Length of presentation was	95%	5%

Behavior change intention:

Wht will you change as a result of this presentation:

- Put dangerous products out of reach
- Use child latches
- Lock cabinets
- Keep medication out of bathrooms
- Be careful what's places in restroom trash can
- Label everything that has different things mixed in
- Don't re-use bottles.

Evaluations n= 5 ER RNs

100% stated content was beneficial

100% stated programs met objectuives

100% stated content was very good

100% stated teaching method was very good

Comment: "Awesome poison control lecture."

Post-test n = 5 ER RNs got 95% of post-test questions correct.

Surveys of 13 Spanish-speakers after a health fair talk:

100% said they know how to contact Poison Control

98% said they know how much it costs to call Poison Control

99% could think of an example of a situation to call Poison Control.

Behavioral outcome at Orange Ridge Elementary

Pre and post-tests were obtained for two grade levels and showed that there was an increase in knowledge.

- Approximately 75 third graders completed pre and post tests. In the pretest, 3rd graders got 85% of the questions correct. In the post-test, they got 98% of the questions correct.
- Approx 30 fifth graders completed pre and post tests. In the pretest, they got 54% of the questions correct. In the post-test, they got 83% of the questions correct.

Behavioral Change intention after a new mother class on poison prevention

N= 8 mothers

100% plan to display the poison help magnet

100% plan to install safety latches

100% plan to move poisonous plants

100% plan to share poison prevention information with others.