Comments: “Very clear, great stories to show examples.” “I absolutely love that real data is included here so we can back up the statistics cited and better protect the community!” “Super informative, especially as a pharmacy student”, “I would include the steps in how can us pharmacy students land a job in poison prevention.” “[suggestion] Potentially including a single slide on the poison control options for veterinary needs since it’s a point of confusion.” “Amazing to hear about the different calls poison prevention receives! Important information to understand as I will be telling my peers about the hotline number!”
